PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Bahria University Islamabad Literary and Debates Society, H-11 Campus, holding steadfast to the conviction that the written and spoken word are instruments by which confident, capable, and articulate individuals are forged, do hereby ordain, adopt, and establish this Constitution, that it may govern the Society, its hierarchy, its endeavours, and the conduct of its members, in furtherance of the interests of the students of the Bahria School of Engineering and Applied Sciences and the wider fraternity of literary and debating practice.

CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION AND ESTABLISHMENT

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Constitution, and unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall bear the meanings hereby assigned to them:

- "The Society" or "BUILDS H-11" denotes the Bahria University Islamabad Literary and Debates Society, H-11 Campus.
- "SSC" denotes the Student Support Center of Bahria University.
- "Hierarchy" denotes, collectively, all office-bearers of the Society across Levels 1 to 5, as prescribed in Chapter II hereof.
- "BoD" denotes the Board of Directors of the Society, as constituted under Article 11 hereof.
- "Term" denotes the fixed period of two semesters for which a hierarchy member shall hold office, as prescribed under Article 22 hereof.
- "Department" denotes any of the three Departments of the Society, namely: Literature, Debates, and Operations.

ARTICLE 1: Name

This instrument shall be known and cited as the Constitution of the Bahria University Islamabad Literary and Debates Society, H-11 Campus, hereinafter referred to as "BUILDS H-11" or "the Society." The Society functions under the aegis of the Bahria School of Engineering and Applied Sciences (BSEAS), Bahria University, Islamabad, and operates as a society duly working under the Student Support Center (SSC).

ARTICLE 2: Origin and Establishment

Section 1 — Historical Background

BUILDS H-11 derives its origin from the Bahria University Islamabad Literary and Debates Society as originally constituted at the E-8 Campus ("BUILDS E-8"). For a period preceding its independent establishment, the students of the H-11 Campus (BSEAS) participated as a branch, chapter, or extension of BUILDS E-8, functioning under its umbrella and availing themselves of its resources, mentorship, and institutional identity.

Section 2 — Separation and Independent Establishment

In September 2026, the H-11 Campus branch was formally severed from BUILDS E-8 and reconstituted as an independent, self-governing society under BSEAS, H-11 Campus. This separation was effected so as to permit the Society to develop a governance structure, membership, and calendar of activity suited to the particular needs, culture, and student body of the H-11 Campus, whilst preserving the founding spirit, name, and literary-debating tradition inherited from BUILDS E-8.

Section 3 — Continuity

BUILDS H-11 regards itself as the continuation of the literary and debating tradition established at BUILDS E-8, whilst functioning henceforth as a fully independent society possessed of its own constitution, office-bearers, departments, and decision-making authority, as set forth in this Constitution.

ARTICLE 3: Purpose and Objectives

The Society is constituted in furtherance of the following objects:

- To cultivate and develop students as confident public speakers and accomplished writers.
- To foster the arts of literature, rhetoric, argumentation, and debate among the student body of BSEAS, H-11 Campus.
- To organize, host, and participate in interdepartmental competitions and events within the H-11 Campus.
- To organize, host, and participate in inter-university competitions, representing BSEAS and Bahria University at large.

- To represent the Society and the University at such external literary, debating, and speaking events, including national and international forums, as may be applicable.
- To furnish a platform for personal and professional development through literary and oratorical activity, mentorship, and structured practice.

CHAPTER II: ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

ARTICLE 4: General Structure

The Society shall be organized upon a five-tier hierarchy of authority, comprising Level 1 through Level 5 office-bearers, as prescribed in this Chapter. Each level shall be accountable to the level immediately superior to it.

ARTICLE 5: The President (Level 1)

Section 1 — Status

The President is the foremost office-bearer of the Society and holds Level 1 authority. The President is the chief executive and the final decision-making authority within the Society, subject always to the provisions of this Constitution.

Section 2 — Authority

The President shall exercise supervisory authority over both the Vice President and the General Secretary, and, by extension, over the entire organizational structure of the Society, including all Departments and the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 6: Level 2 Office-Bearers

Section 1 — Composition

Level 2 of the Society shall comprise two office-bearers, namely the Vice President and the General Secretary, each of whom shall report directly to the President.

Section 2 — The Vice President

The Vice President shall preside over all Departments of the Society. All Directors (Level 3) shall report to the Vice President in matters concerning departmental operations, coordination, and the execution of activities. In furtherance of this office, the Vice President shall additionally be vested with authority to:

- Approve the annual plans and activity calendars of each Department;
- Conduct performance evaluations of Directors;
- Recommend appointments, promotions, or removals within Departments, any such recommendation being subject to final decision in accordance with Articles 13 and 24 hereof;
- Act as the President's representative in the President's absence; and
- Coordinate inter-departmental projects and strategic initiatives.

Section 3 — The General Secretary

The General Secretary shall preside over the Board of Directors and shall be responsible for the administrative and coordinative functions vested in that Board, as further prescribed in this Constitution.

ARTICLE 7: Departments — General Structure

Section 1 — Composition

The Society shall be organized into three Departments, each presided over by a Director holding Level 3 authority and reporting to the Vice President, namely:

- Department of Literature
- Department of Debates
- Department of Operations

Section 2 — Departmental Hierarchy

Each Department shall observe a uniform internal hierarchy, comprising a Director (Level 3), assisted by a Deputy Director, and one or more Coordinators (Level 4) charged with the specific branches or spheres of activity within that Department.

Section 3 — General Duties

Each Director shall be responsible for the planning, execution, and oversight of all activities falling within the mandate of the respective Department, and shall report to the Vice President. The Deputy Director shall assist the Director and act on the Director's behalf as occasion may require. Coordinators shall administer their assigned branch and shall report to the Director and Deputy Director of their Department.

ARTICLE 8: Department of Literature

Section 1 — Composition

The Department of Literature shall be presided over by a Director, assisted by a Deputy Director, and shall include a Coordinator, Book Club (Level 4).

Section 2 — Mandate

The Department of Literature shall be responsible for the whole of the Society's literary activity, including, without limitation, writing competitions, essay writing, and creative writing.

Section 3 — Book Club

The Book Club shall be administered by the Coordinator, Book Club. A book shall be announced each month for the benefit of its members, and two meetups shall be convened each month for the discussion thereof.

ARTICLE 9: Department of Debates

Section 1 — Composition

The Department of Debates shall be presided over by a Director, assisted by a Deputy Director, and shall include two Coordinators (Level 4): the Coordinator, MUNs, and the Coordinator, General Debates.

Section 2 — Mandate

The Department of Debates shall be responsible for the whole of the Society's public speaking and debate activity, including parliamentary debates, Model United Nations (MUNs), declamations, speeches, and open debates.

ARTICLE 10: Department of Operations

Section 1 — Composition

The Department of Operations shall be presided over by a Director, assisted by a Deputy Director, and shall include three Coordinators (Level 4): the Coordinator, Marketing; the Coordinator, Logistics; and the Coordinator, Media & IT.

Section 2 — Mandate

The Department of Operations shall be responsible for the marketing, logistics, and operational support of the Society's activities and events.

Section 3 — Media & IT

The Coordinator, Media & IT shall be responsible for the Society's social media, graphics, photography, and website management. No post or edit shall be made upon the Society's digital platforms save with the prior permission of the Director, Operations.

ARTICLE 11: The Board of Directors

Section 1 — Composition

The Board of Directors shall be presided over by, and shall function under, the General Secretary. The Board shall consist of seven members in total, as follows:

- Seat 1 — General Secretary
- Seat 2 — Manager, Student Support Center (SSC)
- Seat 3 — Reserved for a foreign or international student

- Seats 4, 5, and 6 — Reserved for female students (the remaining seats of the Board may likewise be availed by female students where eligible)
- Seat 7 — A member chosen at the discretion of the General Secretary

Section 2 — Core Members

The core members of the Board of Directors shall be the General Secretary and the Manager, Student Support Center.

Section 3 — Powers and Functions

The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the core decisions of the Society, including, without limitation: the selection of the incoming BUILDS hierarchy, the resolution of any conflicts arising within the Society, and the oversight of the performance of BUILDS management.

ARTICLE 12: Coordinator Teams (Level 5)

Section 1 — Composition

Each Coordinator may constitute their own team of three to four members, who shall comprise Level 5 of the Society's hierarchy.

Section 2 — Selection of Team Members

The selection of Level 5 team members shall rest entirely within the discretion of the respective Coordinator, in furtherance of the smooth execution of the specific tasks assigned to their branch.

ARTICLE 13: Selection Criteria for Hierarchy Members

Section 1 — Selection Authority

The selection of any higher hierarchy member of the Society shall be approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the General Secretary, who shall preside over and coordinate the process of selection.

Section 2 — Eligibility — President

The President must be a student of the final year and must possess no fewer than one year of experience within the BUILDS hierarchy. The person selected for President must evidence a record of active participation and sound management ability across their career in BUILDS over the preceding two years.

Section 3 — Eligibility — Vice President and General Secretary

The Vice President and the General Secretary must each possess no fewer than one year of experience within the BUILDS hierarchy, and must not be students of the first or second year. In the selection of the Vice President and the General Secretary, preference shall be accorded to the promotion of already-serving Directors to these seats.

Section 4 — Eligibility — Directors

A Director for a specific Department must possess no fewer than six months of experience as a junior hierarchy member within that same Department.

Section 5 — Eligibility — Level 4 and Level 5 Members

Only those persons who have already been part of BUILDS as a member for no fewer than six months shall be eligible for Level 4 (Coordinator) and Level 5 (team member) seats.

Section 6 — Conduct and Reputation

Every hierarchy member must evidence good conduct and an active record of participation in the several events and activities carried out by BUILDS, and must hold a good reputation as a student.

Section 7 — Shortfall in Experience

Should no candidate for a given seat satisfy the experience criteria prescribed for that seat, the candidate possessed of the greatest relevant experience shall be selected in their stead.

Section 8 — First Semester Restriction

Students in their first semester shall in no circumstance be part of the Society's hierarchy.

Section 9 — Selection Timeline

The selection and transition of hierarchy members shall take place within the first two weeks of the commencement of each two-semester term, so as to ensure the continuity of the Society's operations.

CHAPTER III: RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR LITERARY AND DEBATE EVENTS

ARTICLE 14: General Provisions and Conduct

Section 1 — Applicability

The rules and regulations set forth in this Chapter shall apply uniformly to all literary, debating, and speaking events organized, hosted, or represented by the Society, whether interdepartmental, inter-university, or otherwise, save where a specific event rulebook issued by the relevant Department provides to the contrary.

Section 2 — Prohibited Conduct

No candidate shall, in the course of any debate activity whatsoever, engage in hate speech, discrimination, sectarianism, harassment, or personal attack. Any such conduct shall occasion the disqualification or failure of the offending candidate. Nothing in this provision shall be construed so as to restrict legitimate political, religious, or social debate conducted with respect, academic rigor, and regard for the dignity of all participants.

Section 3 — General Standard

Save where otherwise specified in this Chapter, the general rules and formats adopted for each event shall accord with the standards generally observed within Pakistan's inter-university literary and debating circuit.

ARTICLE 15: Declamation

Section 1 — Definition

Declamation is a solo, persuasive speech event wherein a candidate delivers a prepared or assigned argument upon a given topic before a panel of judges and an audience.

Section 2 — Time Limit

A candidate shall be allowed a minimum of two and one-half (2.5) minutes and a maximum of five (5) minutes within which to deliver their declamation. A candidate exceeding the maximum time limit shall be penalized in accordance with the judging criteria.

Section 3 — Rules

Topics shall be assigned or chosen in accordance with the format announced by the Department of Literature. Candidates shall be judged upon content, argumentation, delivery, and time management. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply, and any prohibited remark shall occasion disqualification.

ARTICLE 16: Parliamentary Debate

Section 1 — Definition

Parliamentary Debate is a formal, structured debate conducted between two teams — a Government (or Proposition) side and an Opposition side — upon a motion assigned or chosen prior to the debate.

Section 2 — Format

The debate shall follow the Asian Parliamentary format generally observed in Pakistan's inter-university circuit, comprising two teams of three speakers apiece. The Government side shall comprise the Prime Minister, the Deputy Prime Minister, and the Government Whip; the Opposition side shall comprise the Leader of the Opposition, the Deputy Leader of the Opposition, and the Opposition Whip.

Section 3 — Timing

Each constructive speech shall be seven (7) minutes in duration, with Points of Information admissible between the first and sixth minute thereof. A reply speech of four (4) minutes shall be delivered by the first or second speaker of each side, in reverse order of the constructive speeches.

Section 4 — Rules of Conduct

Teams shall be judged upon matter, manner, and method. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply, and any prohibited remark shall occasion the disqualification or failure of the offending speaker or team.

ARTICLE 17: Model United Nations (MUN)

Section 1 — Definition

A Model United Nations (MUN) is a simulation of the workings of the United Nations and its several bodies, wherein delegates represent assigned countries or entities and deliberate upon assigned agenda items in accordance with formal Rules of Procedure.

Section 2 — Committees

MUN sessions organized by the Society may comprise such committees as the General Assembly, the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), the Human Rights Council, and Crisis Committees, as determined by the Department of Debates for each session.

Section 3 — Rules of Procedure

Proceedings shall observe standard Rules of Procedure, including motions, points of order, points of personal privilege, points of parliamentary inquiry, moderated and unmoderated caucuses, formal voting procedures, and the drafting and passage of resolutions.

Section 4 — Conduct

Delegates shall maintain diplomatic conduct throughout the proceedings. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply, and any prohibited remark shall occasion disqualification or removal from the committee.

ARTICLE 18: Speech

Section 1 — Definition

A Speech event requires a candidate to deliver a prepared address upon an assigned or chosen topic, directed toward informing, persuading, or inspiring the audience.

Section 2 — Time Limit

A candidate shall be allowed a minimum of three (3) minutes and a maximum of five (5) minutes, save where otherwise specified for a particular event.

Section 3 — Rules

Candidates shall be judged upon content, structure, delivery, and time management. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply.

ARTICLE 19: Open Debate

Section 1 — Definition

An Open Debate is an informal debate format wherein the floor is opened to participants to speak for or against a given motion, without fixed teams.

Section 2 — Format and Timing

Each participant shall be allowed a maximum of two (2) to three (3) minutes per turn at the floor, as announced by the moderator prior to the session. The moderator shall regulate the order and allocation of speaking turns.

Section 3 — Rules

Participants shall be judged upon the strength of their argumentation and its relevance to the motion. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply, and any prohibited remark shall occasion disqualification from the session.

ARTICLE 20: Essay Writing

Section 1 — Definition

Essay Writing is a written competition wherein candidates present a structured, argumentative, or descriptive composition upon an assigned or chosen topic.

Section 2 — Format

Save where otherwise specified for a particular competition, essays shall comprise between one thousand (1,000) and one thousand five hundred (1,500) words, to be submitted within the time frame announced by the Department of Literature.

Section 3 — Rules

Entries must be original and free of plagiarism. Entries found to be plagiarized shall be disqualified. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply to any content that constitutes hate speech, discrimination, sectarianism, harassment, or personal attack.

ARTICLE 21: Creative and Story Writing

Section 1 — Definition

Creative and Story Writing competitions require candidates to submit an original work of fiction, poetry, or other creative form, upon an assigned or open theme.

Section 2 — Format

Save where otherwise specified for a particular competition, entries shall comprise between eight hundred (800) and one thousand two hundred (1,200) words, to be submitted within the time frame announced by the Department of Literature.

Section 3 — Rules

Entries must be original and free of plagiarism. Entries found to be plagiarized shall be disqualified. The general conduct rules set forth in Article 14 shall apply to any content that constitutes hate speech, discrimination, sectarianism, harassment, or personal attack.

CHAPTER IV: GOVERNANCE, ADMINISTRATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 22: Term of Office

Every hierarchy member of the Society shall serve a fixed term of two (2) semesters, save where removed, or the seat is earlier vacated, in accordance with this Constitution.

ARTICLE 23: Vacancy and Succession

Should a hierarchy member, including the President, Vice President, General Secretary, or a Director, vacate their seat prior to the completion of their term, the Board of Directors shall select a successor to complete the remainder of that term.

ARTICLE 24: Removal and Impeachment

Section 1 — Grounds

A hierarchy member may be removed from their seat upon grounds of misconduct or non-performance.

Section 2 — Written Notice

No proceeding for removal shall be initiated save upon written notice to the concerned member, setting out therein the allegations made against them.

Section 3 — Opportunity to Respond

The concerned member shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present their response or defence before the Board of Directors, prior to any decision being taken.

Section 4 — Decision

The decision to remove a hierarchy member shall be taken through a transparent voting process conducted by the Board of Directors, by majority vote.

ARTICLE 25: Board of Directors — Meetings and Voting

Section 1 — Meetings

The Board of Directors shall convene a formal meeting no less frequently than once every month.

Section 2 — Voting

Decisions of the Board of Directors shall be taken by a simple majority vote of its members.

Section 3 — Quorum

A monthly meeting of the Board of Directors shall be deemed valid upon the presence of the General Secretary together with no fewer than two other members of the Board.

ARTICLE 26: Recognition and Institutional Affiliation

Section 1 — Status

BUILDS H-11 is a society formally recognized by the Student Support Center (SSC), BSEAS.

Section 2 — Institutional Oversight

The Manager, Student Support Center, being a senior officer of the University, shall serve as a core member of the Board of Directors, representing thereby the institutional oversight of the University over the Society.

ARTICLE 27: Event Approval and Finance

The Director, Operations shall bear responsibility for forwarding proposals for the approval of venue, funds, and such other necessities as may be required for any event of the Society, to the Student Support Center (SSC).

ARTICLE 28: General Membership

Students of BSEAS, H-11 Campus, may join the Society as general members through a process of selection and interview.

ARTICLE 29: Grievance Redressal

Section 1 — General Procedure

Any member who considers themselves to have been treated unfairly may lodge a written complaint with the General Secretary and the Board of Directors, who shall be responsible for the hearing and resolution of such grievances.

Section 2 — Complaints Against the General Secretary or a Board Member

Where a complaint concerns the General Secretary or a member of the Board of Directors, the same shall be heard and resolved by the remaining members of the Board, excluding the member concerned, with the proceedings presided over by the President.

Section 3 — Recusal

Any office-bearer who is the subject of a complaint shall be excluded from any deliberation or decision relating to that complaint, in accordance with Article 35 hereof.

ARTICLE 30: Branding and Representation

The Director, Operations shall be the sole approving authority in respect of any use of the BUILDS name or logo in connection with sponsorships, merchandise, or external partnerships.

ARTICLE 31: Inter-Society Collaboration

Joint events or collaborations with other societies, including BUILDS E-8, shall be permitted subject to the joint approval of the President and the Manager, Student Support Center.

ARTICLE 32: Awards and Recognition

In keeping with the established culture of the Society, high-achieving members and participants shall be recognized by way of certificates and goody bags, as determined by the relevant Department.

ARTICLE 33: Dissolution

In the event of the dissolution of BUILDS H-11, all assets and records of the Society shall be transferred to the Student Support Center (SSC).

ARTICLE 34: Amendments

No amendment to this Constitution shall take effect save upon approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER V: SPONSORSHIP, CONDUCT AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 35: Conflict of Interest

A member of the Board of Directors, or any hierarchy member, shall recuse themselves from any discussion, vote, or decision in which they, or a person closely related to them, hold a personal or financial interest.

ARTICLE 36: Sponsorship Agreements

Following the approval of an event proposal through the Student Support Center (SSC), as prescribed under Article 27 hereof, any sponsorship agreement or Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that is money-binding upon the Society shall be signed jointly by the President and the Manager, Student Support Center.

ARTICLE 37: Attendance Policy

Section 1 — Reporting of Absence

A hierarchy or team member unable to attend a meeting or event must report the same to the Board of Directors, together with a valid reason therefor.

Section 2 — Grey Mark

A member who develops a habit of absenting themselves from meetups and events without valid report shall be issued a “Grey Mark,” which shall constitute a formal warning.

Section 3 — Red Mark

Should the member continue to absent themselves from meetups and events without report, following the issuance of a Grey Mark, they shall be issued a “Red Mark.”

Section 4 — Removal

Should the member persist in such conduct following the issuance of a Red Mark, they shall be removed from the Society.

ARTICLE 38: Code of Conduct for General Members

Every member of the Society, including general members, must at all times conduct themselves with due respect toward fellow members, the hierarchy, and guests of the Society. Harassment, bullying, or any other form of misconduct is strictly prohibited. Violations shall be addressed through the Grievance Redressal mechanism set forth in Article 29, and may result in a Grey Mark, Red Mark, or removal, in accordance with Article 37, according to the severity of the conduct in question.

ARTICLE 39: Alumni Engagement

The Society may, at the discretion of the President and General Secretary, invite former hierarchy members and alumni to mentor, guide, or otherwise participate in select activities of the Society.

CHAPTER VI: FINANCIAL GOVERNANCE, SUCCESSION AND ASSET PROTECTION

ARTICLE 40: Financial Governance

Section 1 — Sponsorship Approval

All sponsorship proposals shall be forwarded by the Director, Operations to the Student Support Center (SSC) in accordance with Article 27 hereof, and any resulting sponsorship agreement or Memorandum of Understanding shall be executed in accordance with Article 36 hereof.

Section 2 — Budget Preparation and Expenditure Authority

The Director, Operations, in consultation with the General Secretary, shall prepare the budget for each event of the Society prior to its submission to the SSC. No expenditure shall be incurred on behalf of the Society save upon the prior approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 3 — Financial Record-Keeping

The Director, Operations shall maintain accurate and complete records of all funds received and expended by the Society.

Section 4 — Accountability and Audit

The financial records of the Society shall be made available to the Board of Directors upon request, and a review of accounts shall be conducted no less frequently than once every term.

Section 5 — Event Fund Management

Funds allocated for a specific event shall be applied solely toward the stated purpose of that event, and any surplus remaining thereafter shall be reported to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 41: Emergency Succession

Should the President, Vice President, and General Secretary simultaneously resign, become inactive, or otherwise be rendered unable to discharge their duties, the Board of Directors shall, within two weeks of such occurrence, appoint an interim President from among the serving Directors, to discharge the functions of that office until a regular selection is conducted in accordance with Article 13 hereof.

ARTICLE 42: Society-Owned Digital Assets

All social media accounts, websites, email addresses, branding materials, and digital records created or maintained in the name of the Society are, and shall remain, the property of BUILDS H-11. Upon the conclusion of each term, all access credentials and materials pertaining thereto shall be formally transferred to the succeeding office-bearers.

CHAPTER VII: MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS, OVERSIGHT AND INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW

ARTICLE 43: Rights and Responsibilities of General Members

Section 1 — Rights

Every general member of the Society shall be entitled to participate in the meetings and events of the Society open to general membership, to stand for eligible hierarchy positions in accordance with Article 13 hereof, and to access the grievance mechanisms set forth in Article 29 hereof.

Section 2 — Responsibilities

Every general member shall abide by the Code of Conduct set forth in Article 38 hereof, observe the Attendance Policy set forth in Article 37 hereof, and at all times conduct themselves in a manner that upholds the reputation of the Society.

ARTICLE 44: Board of Directors — Oversight Role

The Board of Directors shall exercise oversight over the hierarchy and administration of the Society in the following respects:

- The approval of hierarchy selections, in accordance with Article 13 hereof;
- The periodic review of the performance of office-bearers;
- Oversight of compliance with, and any proposed amendment to, this Constitution, in accordance with Article 34 hereof; and
- Financial accountability, in accordance with Article 40 hereof.

ARTICLE 45: Alumni Advisory Council

Section 1 — Establishment

The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, establish an Alumni Advisory Council comprising distinguished alumni and former hierarchy members of the Society, in addition to the discretionary alumni engagement contemplated under Article 39 hereof.

Section 2 — Role

The Alumni Advisory Council may advise the Board of Directors and the hierarchy upon strategic matters, and may assist in the preservation of institutional memory and the continuity of the Society's traditions and best practices, provided that the Council shall possess no binding decision-making authority within the Society.

ARTICLE 46: Constitutional Review

A formal review of this Constitution shall be conducted by the Board of Directors upon the completion of the Society's first full operational term as an independent entity, with a view to identifying practical challenges, governance gaps, and areas requiring refinement in light of implementation experience. Subsequent reviews may thereafter be conducted at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

RATIFICATION

This Constitution has been duly reviewed and is hereby adopted as the governing instrument of the Bahria University Islamabad Literary and Debates Society, H-11 Campus.
